

Compactor Plates

Compactor Plates

Ideal for deep drainage projects. The compactor plate is attached to the arm of machine, meaning no men are needed to go down the trench and the compactor is more manipulative, therefore there is more control. The compaction is very effective meaning there is 8 x more penetration than a self-propelled trench compactor! These compactors are also very controllable for steep incline compaction. A safer and more effective option all round.

Product features:

- Motor protection
- Strong lightweight design
